6. What are some of the key terms and conditions that I should be aware of?

Some of the key terms and conditions that you should be aware of are:

▪ Duty of disclosure

Consumer Takaful Contract

Pursuant to Paragraph 5 of Schedule 9 of the Islamic Financial Services Act 2013, if you are applying for this takaful wholly for purposes unrelated to your trade, business or profession, you have a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation in answering the questions in the Proposal Form (or when you apply for this takaful). You must answer the questions fully and accurately. Failure to take reasonable care in answering the questions may result in avoidance of your contract of takaful, refusal or reduction of your claim(s), change of terms or termination of your contract of takaful. The above duty of disclosure shall continue until the time your contract of takaful is entered into, varied or renewed with us. In addition to answering the questions in the Proposal Form (or when you apply for this takaful), you are required to disclose any other matter that you know to be relevant to our decision in accepting the risks and determining the rates and terms to be applied. You also have a duty to tell us immediately if at any time after your contract of takaful has been entered into, varied or renewed with us any of the information given in the Proposal Form (or when you applied for this takaful) is inaccurate or has changed.

Non-Consumer Takaful Contract

Pursuant to Paragraph 4(1) of Schedule 9 of the Islamic Financial Services Act 2013, if you are applying for this takaful for a purpose related to your trade, business or profession, you have a duty to disclose any matter that you know to be relevant to our decision in accepting the risks and determining the rates and terms to be applied and any matter a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know to be relevant, otherwise it may result in avoidance of your contract of takaful, refusal or reduction of your claim(s), change of terms or termination of your contract of takaful. The above duty of disclosure shall continue until the time your contract of takaful is entered into, varied or renewed with us. You also have a duty to tell us immediately if at any time after your contract of takaful has been entered into, varied or renewed with us any of the information given in the Proposal Form (or when you applied for this takaful) is inaccurate or has changed.

▪ Change in Risk – you must inform the company or your agent in writing of any material changes during the certificate period so that the necessary amendments are endorsed into your certificate.

▪ Duty of Participant – you shall take all reasonable precautions for the safety of the property covered.

- You must ensure that your property are covered at the appropriate amount, either on:
 - a) Market value basis – we will pay the full cost of repairing the damaged property less the amount for wear, tear and depreciation.
 - b) Replacement value basis – we will reinstate, repair or replace the loss or damaged property without any deductions being made for wear, tear or depreciation provided that the sum covered is adequate to cover the total cost of replacing.
- Under coverage – you must ensure that the sum covered is adequate, otherwise, average condition will apply for under coverage at the time of loss. You shall be considered as covering for yourself the difference and shall bear the rateable proportion of the loss accordingly.
- Excess - is the first amount of loss that you have to bear in the event of a claim.

7. What are the major exclusions under this scheme?
